Glens Falls National Bank and Trust Company Makes a Substantial Contribution to the Salem Food Pantry

Glens Falls National Bank and Trust Company recently announced a donation of $3,000 to the Salem Food Pantry.

The Salem Food Pantry aids people in need in Salem and the communities of southern Washington County. The food pantry recently sustained extensive flood damage to the refrigeration, freezer and dry goods storage during Tropical Storm Irene at its West Broadway location and is now faced with substantial improvements in their current location at Burton Hall.

Glens Falls National Bank and Trust Company, founded in 1851, serves a five county area including Washington, Warren, Clinton, Essex and Saratoga Counties. Glens Falls National has 10 Offices in Washington County.
