Glens Falls National Bank and Trust Company has announced the promotions of Harrison P. Sangster to Vice President/Corporate Banking Officer and Craig M. Seybolt to Assistant Vice President/Corporate Banking Officer in the Corporate Banking Department.

Mr. Sangster joined the Bank in 2006 as a Credit and Senior Portfolio Analyst. In 2007, he was appointed to Credit Officer and in March 2009, he was appointed to Assistant Vice President and Credit Manager. In December 2009, Mr. Sangster was appointed to Loan Officer in the Corporate Banking Department.

He is a native of Howell, New Jersey. Mr. Sangster earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration and Finance from Monmouth University, a Masters of Business Administration from Marist College and is a veteran of the United States Navy. He currently is an adjunct faculty member for Empire State College.

He has previously volunteered at an orphanage in Nepal and is a past member of the Board of Directors for the Johnsbury Emergency Squad.

Mr. Sangster resides in Wevertown with his wife, Donna and their family.

Mr. Seybolt joined the Bank in 2007 as a Branch Services Associate. In 2008, he was appointed to Credit Analysis Associate in the Corporate Banking Department and in 2010, Mr. Seybolt was promoted to Corporate Banking Officer.

Mr. Seybolt is a native of South Glens Falls and a graduate of the State University of New York at Plattsburgh where he earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance and Business. He has also completed the Leadership Adirondack 2010 program.

Active in the community, he serves as a Vice President for the Glens Falls Kiwanis Club and is a member of the Adirondack Regional Chamber of Commerce, Steering Committee for the Young Professionals Organization. Mr. Seybolt is also a Board Member for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and a member of the Regional Steering Committee for Junior Achievement.

Mr. Seybolt resides in South Glens Falls with his wife, Antoinette and their daughter Madelyn Lee.
